and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

It would seem that we have some kids that need something to occupy their time.

At the start of the baseball season in the school ball park it was necessary to replace over 30 light bulbs that had been knocked out and since the bulbs were replaced six more have been broken. The bulbs cost $3.06 each.

I would suggest to those who are doing this damage to be sure and not get caught because the school and city officials are in a mood to make it pretty rough on anyone that is caught breaking out the lights.

Along this same line, Sunday when the water was so high in the city park area the police department put up a barricade to prevent traffic from moving on the road by the park because of the danger.

They didn't much more than get it up before someone or ones came along and cut the wire and took down the sign. This was a very foolish prank because of the danger to the public.

The road was blocked because the police felt that the road was a hazard to drive on and anyone caught removing such blockades would be subject to a very stiff penalty if caught.

It would seem that the Kennedy administration is dangling a promise of a cut in taxes to the public to try to overcome the current uneasiness with the economic conditions being displayed on wall street and elsewhere.

Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth, in his current newsletter, points out the fallacies in such a tax cut at this time.

Parts of his newsletter are being repeated here because of the need for the general public to become awakened to the built-in dangers of this country continuing on the road to ruin by spending more money than it is taking in.

On the surface, this sounds like wonderful news. It's a tempting morsel. Heaven knows this country could stand a tax cut. Since World War II, the American people have borne a heavy tax load. A well-planned reduction could release money for investments and consumer buying.

For an office-holder, it offers an attractive bandwagon. There's a temptation for a Congressman to rush to the nearest mimeograph machine and issue a statement whooping and hollering and saying boy! a reduction in taxes is exactly what this country needs! And hooray! It's on the way!

Politically, I guess, this might be pretty smart. For the public dearly loves anybody who talks about cutting taxes and can make it sound convincing.

The only trouble is that I'm not sure how feasible . . . or even possible . . . this will be. To raise false hopes would be cruel. It would be untrue to oneself, much more to those who look to him for leadership and honest counsel. For the time being, I would like to reserve judgment.

For even though I do indeed believe we individually and nationally could profit by a substantial tax cut, there are things I think we need still more. We need fiscal responsibility. We need to begin paying off our burdensome national debt, on which interest alone gobbles up 11 cents out of every dollar the government takes in.

If we can begin to rid ourselves of this dead weight, then a tax cut will eventually take care of itself.

We need to start removing this cruel burden with which we have saddled our children and our children's children's children. We need to begin paying as we go. If an immediate and temporary tax cut is to be purchased at the price of more deficit financing and an even

UTES HELD SUNDAY FOR ROBERT JOHNSON, HAMLIN CIVIC LEADER

Robert Johnson, 72, an area resident for more than 60 years, died at his home on Rt. 1, Friday at 9:30 a.m. following a heart attack. He had been ill health for approximately two months.

Born July 28, 1889, in Hood County, Texas, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson.

Mr. Johnson moved with his parents to the Hamlin area before the turn of the Century and before Hamlin was organized as a town in 1906. They moved to the farm where his son, Ray, and his family now live in 1900. The Johnson family went to Merkel by wagon to buy the material to build their home.

He was married to the former Myrtis Wilkerson in Hamlin, December 22, 1913.

A farmer and stockman, he was also an active member of the First Baptist Church, the Masonic Lodge, Hamlin Riding Club and was a former school board member.

As one of the original of the Hamlin Riding Club, it was

Mr. Johnson's love of horses and the fact that his grandchildren loved to ride that helped him to see the need of the program. He and his wife rode together and often attended the Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford. He held a lifetime membership to the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association.

He was a member of the Hamlin School Board when the high school building was built.

Mr. Johnson was also on the original board of trustees when the Hamlin Memorial Hospital was organized in 1946. He was one of the nine directors of the first board and served for three years. During his tenure the hospital was opened for service on February 16, 1948.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have in recent years built a park on their land on the banks of California Creek. The area was named "Frog Park" by Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, because of the frogs that hopped around after each rain. The descendants of W. T. and Cynthia Johnson meet at the park on the first Sunday in May each year for the Johnson Family Reunion. More than 175 persons were present for the 1962 reunion.

Others enjoy the park too. More than a thousand people picnicked in the area during 1961.

Services were held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Lenard Hartley, pastor, and the Rev. James P. Boswell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Hamlin East Cemetery. Nephews were pallbearers.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Weldon, W. T. and Ray; one daughter, Mrs. Ed Branscum; one sister, Mrs. Austin Rose of Hereford; and seven grandchildren.

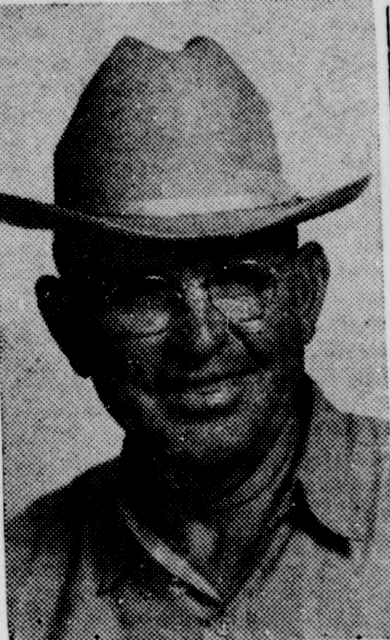

On June 6, 1920, he was married to the former Nettie Tine Massey in Alba, Texas. They moved here from Grand Saline, Texas. He was a retired farmer.

Thomas Cudd, minister of the Church of Christ, and the Rev. Lenard Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist Church will officiate. Burial will be in Hamlin East Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Lewie W. Penny of Arlington, Thomas Penny of Fort Worth; three daughters, Mrs. James Smart Jr., of Hamlin, Mrs. E. T. Simonton of Fort Worth, Mrs. M. E. Abraham of Pacific Grove, California; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown and daughters, Sarah Lou and Betsy, and son, Bill, of Midland, visited in the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Routh over the weekend.

Slides will be shown in the afternoon for the Bible School for children of all ages.

Over 7 Inches of Rain Received Since First

Thunderstorms, hail, high winds and heavy rains have plagued West Texas for over a week with Hamlin seemingly being located virtually in the middle of the most of it. During June, 7.75 inches of rain have been recorded by Bill Rountree at the official rain gauge located at the city pump station. Reports much higher than this have been received from the surrounding area.

Fortunately, very little damage has resulted from the storms within the city. However, most of the area's cotton crop has been either hailed or flooded out and no one can guess when the crop can be replanted since more of the same weather has been predicted for the next few days. Several area roads have been closed at different times during the storm. Saturday night Highway 187, between Hamlin and Anson, was closed. Highway 92, between Rotan and Hamlin, was closed for several days because the bridges were being replaced and the rains washed out the detours. Several FM roads in the area have been closed.

Water got out of the banks of the creek at the South edge of Hamlin Sunday morning and flooded three or four homes. None of the homes were evacuated, however.

Probably the greatest damage to the area farmers was the washing of terraces caused by the heavy run-offs. While the cotton farmers were suffering from the heavy rains the ranchers were rejoicing from the much needed moisture. The dry spell preceding the rains had left most of the stock tanks low and the pasture land was suffering from the lack of rainfall.

This area's bumper wheat crop was harvested before the downpours started nearly two weeks ago.

During the heavy rains all of the city lakes ran over the spillways. The south lake, however, did not run over the emergency spillway. No damage to the dams have resulted from the lakes reaching capacity.

Rainfall by days was reported as follows: June 1, .44; June 6, .49; June 7, 1.15; June 8, 1.73; June 9, .22; June 10, 2.19; June 12, 1.51; June 13, .02.

The June rainfall brings the total for the year to 11.81, which is above the average of about 10.25 for this time of year.

Rainfall for the preceding months are Jan., traces; Feb., .07; March 1.18; April 1.41; and May 1.40.

REV. JAMES P. BOSWELL

Rev. James Boswell Named New First Methodist Pastor

The Rev. James P. Boswell, new pastor of the First Methodist Church, conducted his first services there Sunday. The Rev. Boswell and his family moved here Thursday from Plainview where he had been pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church for four years.

A native of Oklahoma, he was graduated from High School at Asher, Oklahoma. He is also a graduate of McMurry College, Abilene and Perkins School of Theology in Dallas. He has been in the ministry since 1949, serving on the Clyde-circuit and then pastor of churches at Sylvester, Garden City, Fargo, Turkey and the church at Plainview.

Mrs. Boswell, the former Marie Byerley, is a native West Texan. She was born and reared in Big Spring.

Their children are Gene, a junior at McMurry, Mary Beth, who will be a freshman at McMurry this fall; Terry, a third grader and Tami Ruth, 18 months old.

Rodeo to be Dedicated To Mr. Robert Johnson

The Hamlin Riding Club Amateur Rodeo will be dedicated this year to the late Robert Johnson who worked diligently for the club's organization. The club had made plans for Mr. Johnson to be the guest of honor at the performances but his untimely death Friday, June 8, has called for an alteration of the original plans.

The rodeo will be underway here Thursday, June 21, with a parade at 4:00 p.m. Performances will then be held at 7:30 each evening Thursday through Saturday.

The rodeo, which for the past three years has been a junior rodeo, has been enlarged to include all ages in this year's event.

Roy Thompson, general chairman, said that the following events are scheduled:

barrel racing, calf roping, barrel racing, wild mare race, team tying, bull riding, and a special event, calf roping for 45 years and older. Also a flag race for two age groups, eight and under and nine through twelve. This event is limited to Jones County contestants.

Melvin McGarraugh of Peryton is the producer. Entry blanks may be obtained at the Hamlin Board of Community Development office. Entries close June 20 at 6 p.m.

Additional seating has been added to accommodate larger crowds. Thirty-four box sections have been constructed above the fence on the West side. The original stands have been moved above the box seats.

Members of the riding club are being assisted by the BCD and the Hamlin Jaycees in staging the show. The rodeo office is located at the BCD and the Jaycees will operate the concession stand.

Admission is $1.00 for adults, 50c for children.

DEDICATION SATURDAY— AREA LIVESTOCK MEN INVITED TO FLY PRODUCTION PLANT

Formal dedication of the new sterile fly production plant at Mission, headquarters of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program, will be Saturday, June 16.

Dedication ceremonies begin at 10 a.m., June 16, Charlie T. Myatt, county chairman of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, announced. Jones County producers have played an important role in the completion of the plant by contributing $5,600.00 of their own funds.

All livestock producers and others interested in the eradication of screwworms are invited and urged to attend.

"This day of dedication will be a milestone in the history of Jones county's livestock industry, as well as the Southwest," Myatt said.

The eradication program is a joint effort by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, and the Texas Animal Health Commission with the cooperation of other agencies and groups. Officials of these organizations will take part in the dedication along with representatives from Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana and Arkansas who are working to make eradication of the screwworm in all the Southwest complete.

Highlight of the day will be a tour of the plant where visitors will have an opportunity to see all phases of screwworm fly production. The plant will go on tight security regulations the next day with the first flies from the new plant to be released in early July. This will give the volume of flies needed for eradication.

Rev. Fred Brown Begins Fourth Year as Pastor

The Rev. Fred Brown began his fourth conference year as pastor of Faith Methodist Church here Sunday. His appointment to serve the local church was made at the recent Northwest Texas Annual Conference held in Big Spring. An extended ministry was also projected as the Rev. Brown will serve the McCaulley Methodist Church and the Neinda Methodist.

Worship services at McCaulley will be conducted at 9:45 a.m. preceded by Sunday School at 9:00 a.m. Evening worship has been scheduled at 8 p.m. This schedule will be followed for the second, third and fourth Sundays of each month.

Preaching services will be held at Neinda on the first Sunday of each month.

Schedule of services at the Faith Methodist Church is as follows: 9:45 a.m. Sunday School; 11:00 o'clock, morning worship and 7:00 evening worship.

Fire Dept. Answers Call Monday Night

At 10:40 p.m. Monday the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department was called out when an alarm was turned in during the heavy rain.

The man who placed the call with the dispatcher said that lightning had struck the grade school and it was on fire, but when the local fire department arrived, there was no evidence of fire at either the primary, elementary or junior high buildings.

Many people went to their cellar upon hearing the alarm, thinking that it was a tornado alert.

Pro-Am Tourney Slated Here Sunday

The Lakeview Golf Club is planning a Pro-Am Golf Tournament at the nine-hole course Sunday afternoon. Play will begin at 1 p.m.

Registration is open to men, women and young people. Golf balls will be awarded as prizes.

Farm Labor Day Set in Stamford

A Farm Labor Day will be held in Stamford, Thursday, June 14, 1962 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Texas Employment Commission office located at the front of the City Auditorium, according to W. A. Hazlewood Jr., Manager of the Texas Employment Commission in Abilene.

The purpose of this Farm Labor Day is to bring together farmers and ranchers who need workers and the farm or ranch hands who want a job. Mr. Stuart Burt, representing the Texas Employment Commission, will accept orders from anyone needing farm or ranch hands. He will accept applications from all workers seeking this type of work. In the instances when the employer and the worker show up at the same time, an interview can be arranged immediately. This is an effort of the Texas Employment Commission to make sure all local workers are utilized in meeting the area labor demands.

Singing Sunday

The Jones - Fisher County Singing will meet Sunday, June 17 at the Foursquare Church at 2 p.m. The new books have arrived. Everyone is invited.

Summer Band Classes Started

The summer schedule of rehearsals for the Hamlin High School Band has been set for 7:00 p.m. each Thursday, beginning tonight. The band plans to stay in top form all through the summer to be ready for the fall school term. All band members are urged to attend.

Tim Jones, director of the bands, is conducting beginners' classes for sixth grade and above. The classes are now in session, and anyone desiring to enter the band program is asked to contact Mr. Jones and enroll for the classes no later than Monday.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER COMES OUT WITH SOLUTION TO PROBLEM OF CANDIDATES INTERFERING WITH TV

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on route one discusses what he considers a vital problem this week. It might be.

Dear editor: Since nobody else seems to be working on this problem, I have decided to give it some thought.

The problem is: what can the country do about candidates interfering with television programs during a hot campaign?

Everybody knows how important it is for a candidate with the guaranteed solutions to vital problems all the way from atom bomb testing to government waste to the salvation of civilization, to get on the air just ahead of an election and say so, makes no difference whether he's running for Justice for the Peace or Governor or the U. S. Senate. And yet everybody knows the groans that go up when the people settle down to see Gunsmoke and hear an announcer say the following time has been bought and paid for at regular commercialbe the one who does it.

But I have hit on a solution. We can have both, at the same time. Haven't you noticed in a Western or nearly any other TV drama there are long stretches of silence, like when the killer and the marshall are stalking each other just prior to the show-down fight?

Why couldn't TV producers stretch these stalking periods for at regular commercialbe the one who does it.

Now I'd be the first to agree that the people need to be informed, and they need to be entertained, by television, although there have been times when I have been more entertained than informed by political speeches and more informed than entertained by entertainment programs.

But here's the thing: it's not fair to the people to have Gunsmoke, for example, put off the air temporarily for a political speech they don't want to hear, and it blamed sure ain't fair to the candidate to out a little longer and let a candidate come on for a few words connecting the election of him with the preservation of civilization? When the marshal is chasing the outlaw on horseback in a Western, or the private detective is chasing the killer by car in an Eastern State, why not let them go two miles or ten blocks further, as the case may be, and during the silence work in some more of the candidate's speech?

Then everybody can go to bed, entertained and informed, and not sure which he's the sleepiest from.

FAIRVIEW NEWS..

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

The big news this week isn't wind and sand again but rain and more rain. The fields are full, the creeks all bank full, and in some places have been out of banks, in fact there is certainly an abundance of water everywhere you look this Monday morning. It started Wednesday night of the past week and until Sunday morning had come from seven inches and up. Some vicinities measured as much as five inches Saturday and Saturday night.

More hail fell the past week also, those escaping the week before got it last Wednesday night. There are some fields of cotton left after all of the hail and rain, but as a whole, the cotton crop has been damaged very heavily. Feed will be set back quite a bit but will put out and it certainly will have the moisture to make a good crop, although feed acreage is rather small.

this year in our part of the country. Since there seemed to be tornadoes in every cloud that came up, you would have found most of the people in a storm cellar the past week, whenever the clouds started building up. We are all hoping the turbulent weather is over for a while any way, we have had enough scares for a while.

There have been two deaths the past week of pioneer residents of this vicinity. Mrs. W. L. Fletcher passed away last Sunday evening in the Hamlin Hospital at the age of ninety two. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher came to Jones county in 1907 and had resided on the same place since, until the first of this year, they moved to Hamlin. Mr. Fletcher survives her, they recently celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Robert Johnson died of a heart attack at his home Friday morning, he had been ill of a heart ailment for two months. Mr. Johnson has lived here since 1900, and was 72 years of age. He is survived by his wife, who was the former Myrtis Wilkerson, a member of another early day family of this community.

We are glad to report that Mr. Roy Smith, injured in the tornado, to be improving rapidly at this time. Mr. Smith will be confined in the Anson hospital for a while but his injuries are healing.

Services in our church were held Sunday and Sunday night but attendance was off very much, some were mud bound, some were gone. Reunion time has come and that always causes our attendance to drop.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum went to Fort Worth over the week end to attend a reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright and Melinda attended a reunion in Abilene Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Gray

Agent Gives Tips On Controlling Screwworm Cases

Periodic spraying of livestock every 2 to 3 weeks with Co-Ral or ronnel (Korlan) will aid greatly in the prevention of screwworm infestations, County Agent Kirby Clayton, emphasized today.

Stockmen are urged to spray their livestock regularly to prevent as many screwworm cases as possible. Every screwworm case which is prevented or controlled by chemical treatment will also aid greatly the effectiveness of the overall screwworm eradication program.

Although several insecticides will effectively control screwworms, County Agent, Kirby Clayton, said sprays of Co-Ral or ronnel (Korlan) give better protection from screwworm attack. These sprays also will give good control of most other external parasites such as horn flies, lice and ticks. Co-Ral will give good protection against the cattle grub if applied in June or July.

Stockmen also are urged to inspect all livestock regularly and treat all wounds promptly. Ten or more worms should be collected from deep in each

Cowboy Reunion Adds New Feature For July 2, 3, 4

President Gene Swenson of the Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford, today announced a special horsehooping contest for the reunion July 2-3-4. Swenson said "There are thousands of young folks and newcomers to Texas who have never seen a cowpony shod. Therefore we intend to have an area blacksmiths who are interested, stage a contest as to who can quickest and best shoe a cowpony. This will be hard work just as it was in the century past."

Swenson further said "This

Why does GAS give you the only "family-duty" REFRIGERATOR?

Gas refrigerators are built to work better, last longer — and for less! You know they can take it — and here's why:

LONGEST WARRANTY ON THE MARKET — Family-planned 10-year warranty on the sealed GAS system is twice as long as any other — backed by reliable Lone Star Gas Service.

MONEY-SAVING OPERATION — Refrigeration costs less because it's GAS! Fewer moving parts to wear in the Gas system mean lower repair costs and less worry than with compressor types.

ICE DISPENSER MODELS, NEVER ANY FROST in frost-free models. Ice is always fingertip-handly in the server basket. No frost forms in continuous-cold GAS refrigerator-freezers. Big zero-degree freezer is a separate compartment. GAS refrigerator prices are the lowest ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Greenway and Mary Lorna, are visiting his father, Roscoe Greenway, and other relatives. The Greenways are residents of Newcastle, Wyoming. They were in church services Sunday, it is always good to see them back with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Houchin and Brad, were also visitors again Sunday. They live in Lubbock, Mrs. Houchin and Brad, accompanied by Kathy Lewis, returned home Sunday afternoon, but Mr. Houchin will work in Abilene next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin, Linda and Sherri Combs, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner Friday night.

Jeannie Joiner returned to her home Saturday after spending the week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Bond attended the Bond reunion at Buffalo Gap Saturday night and Sunday. There were 68 present and with the rain on Saturday night they spent most of the night sitting in their cars keeping dry.

It has been learned that Mrs. Sharlot Gabriel was married to Mr. Vernon Wright of Anson, last Friday night. Sharlot has a beauty shop in Anson, but was still living in our community. We wish them all of the happiness in the world.

Mr. Renfro is reported to be in a very serious condition, although they are still in the rest home in Roby.

Mrs. John Riddle of Sweetwater, passed away last week and was buried in the Fairview cemetery. She was a sister-in-law of Mr. Ralph Riddle and was the former Mattie Ashburn, of Tuxedo. Before her marriage to Mr. Riddle, she taught school at the old Abbie school. Mr. Riddle preceded her in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones went to Stamford Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Newman Jones and report Mr. Jones to be feeling good, and able to attend the Bennett reunion yesterday. He was so seriously ill last year so long that he is really enjoying getting around again.

Mrs. Larry Moore Honored Friday With Gift Tea

A gift tea honoring Mrs. Larry Moore, the former Joyce Shields, was held in the Oil Mill Guest House Friday evening. Hostesses for the event were Mmes. I. D. Acklin, Dorothy Johnson, Frances Boil, J. B. Martin, C. O. Wigginton, A. A. Wade, R. D. Wade, J. D. Wyatt, E. W. Ueckert and A. J. Winegeart. In the receiving line were Mrs. Winegeart, Mrs. Moore and her mother, Mrs. Bob Shields. Sue Martin registered guests and Frances Boil and Dorothy Johnson served refreshments.

The table was laid with a blue and white cutwork linen cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of mums with blue wedding bells. Gifts were displayed on tables with arrangements of gladioli and daisies. Approximately 100 people sent gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pritchard, Sherry and Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cary, Mike and Ricky, were recent visitors at Carlsbad Caverns National Park in New Mexico. They went over 750 feet underground to see the Eighth Wonder of the World.

Humble Installing New Station Signs

Humble Oil & Refining Company begins a 60-day campaign to erect the Enco sign at all its stations in Texas. This is another step in the nationwide expansion program which began in 1959. Humble now markets in 46 states.

As part of this program, a new sign was erected at the Wells Humble Service Station here Tuesday.

Throughout the West, from Texas to Oregon, from California to Indiana, Humble's sign will be the Enco oval. In the East, Humble stations will use the brand name, Esso.

The name Enco is derived from the slogan "America's Leading Energy Company." This slogan was adopted following the merger of five leading oil companies to form the nation's largest domestic oil company.

THANKS - -

We truly appreciate the wonderful reception given us by the Hamlin people. We are determined to give you first quality food accompanied with efficient service. If we haven't met you, come by and afford us with that privilege.

JOYCE SHIELDS AND LARRY MOORE MARRIED JUNE 1

Joyce Marie Shields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shields, was married to Larry Gene Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, in home ceremonies Friday evening, June 1, at 7:00 o'clock.

Thomas E. Cudd, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Bobbie K. Shields was maid of honor for her sister.

Doug Butler was best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white shadow sheer nylon over blue dacron and cotton. The dress, made by the bride was designed with a low rounded neckline in the front which dropped to a V in the back, brief sleeves and full gathered skirt. She carried an arrangement of white carnations.

The maid of honor's dress was made like the bride's in white cotton with white lace trimming. The houseparty for the reception following the ceremony included Frances Boil, Dixie Daniels, Helen Moore, Kathy Moore and Bobbie Shields.

The bride chose a white two piece suit of combed cotton with a carnation corsage for a wedding trip to Gainesville.

The former Miss Shields was graduated from Hamlin High School this spring. She was a member of the pep squad.

The bridegroom attended schools in Hamlin and McCaulley. He is now employed with the Texas Highway Department in Stamford where the couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McCright of Roby are parents of a boy, William Todd, born June 9, weighing 8 lbs. 15 oz. Grandparents are Mrs. W. B. Berry of Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McWright of Royston.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

IN-LAWS TREAT HER LIKE AN OUTLAW

Dear Amy:

You probably won't believe this, but so help me, it's true!

I've been married for 7 years and I've never met my husband's parents. They live within 1/2 hour drive from our house and I've never even seen them because of the circumstances of our marriage.

We are of different faiths and my husband's people wouldn't even come to our wedding. This has troubled me for years.

My husband and I are very happy and our marriage has turned out successfully. Don't you think they should overlook the differences in our religions and try to make me feel like I belong?

My husband and I never discuss this sore spot but I know we would both feel happier about it if they would at least give me a chance to show them I am a good wife and that I mean well.

What would you suggest?

Mrs. N. B.

Dear Mrs. N. B.:

If after seven years your husband's parents have not seen fit to accept you for what you are, I would say you would be wasting your time to try to show them anything. The limits of sociability have long since passed.

Dear Amy: My husband passed away two years ago leaving me with 3 small children aged 11, 9, and 3. You may think it's a horrible thing for me to say, but his death did not leave me broken hearted.

He hadn't been a good provider. He went out alone three or four nights a week, did not pay any attention to the children—in fact, they have never even asked for him.

Now I'm only 32 and very lonesome. I feel I would like to marry again sometime although I haven't gone out with any men since my husband's death. I'm the quiet type and I don't drink or smoke. Do you think if I tried, I could meet someone worthwhile?

Wondering

Dear Wondering: Of course you can! It's amazing what a male companion can do to bring out your "feminine charm". If and when the opportunity to marry again comes along, choose wisely. We don't all get a second chance to profit by our mistakes.

Dear Amy:

I'm 30, single, and desperate. Easter weekend my girlfriend and I were at the shore and I met a terrific guy at the hotel where we stayed. He lives down the shore. He called me up twice since I came home and he even came to see me. We had a great time and he wants me to come to the shore next weekend.

I'm dying to go but I don't know if it's right or wrong. What should I do?

Still a Miss

Dear Miss: It's "right" to go providing you do no "wrong" when you get there. At this stage of the game, leave no stone unturned; but, watch out for snakes. Good Luck!

Dear Amy:

My mother has two parakeets that she is very fond of. Whenever a date comes over to take me out, my mother has to show off her birds. She makes them talk and lets them fly around. Mostly they fly into my hair or my date's hair and mess us all up. It is at least an hour before we can get out of the house.

Usually the boys are impressed the first time, but when they come again, they are bored and annoyed with the birds.

I'm afraid my popularity is going to suffer if I can't get Mother to keep the birds in the cage.

Have you any ideas?

Margaret

Dear Margaret: The next time Mother lets the birds fly out of the cage, excuse yourself and your date and fly out of the house.

Personal to Lili:

It's true; only famous men get their heads on paper money. But women don't mind, they would rather get their hands on it!

OLD GLORY NEWS-

By SHARON LEVERETT

POOL:

The Old Glory Seniors are holding their Thursday afternoon pool game. They were happy to see the seniors and their home. They enjoyed their trip to New Mexico tremendously.

SON REUNION:

The annual Gibson Reunion was held at Combes Round Hall on the Cowboy Ranch grounds in Stamford last Saturday and Sunday. It has been the custom since 1942, when the first family gathering was held at Silver Falls, Oregon, for the family of the late Hiram and Mrs. Gibson and the late Mrs. Gibson Crist to assemble a reunion. Every family brought food, some spent the night camping Saturday night, while others came to spend the day Sunday. A basket dinner was served, games were played and movies of former reunions were shown.

About 65 registered the following towns in Texas: Taylor, Andrews, Irving, Spur, Tenesse Colony, Malakoff, Clarion, Roaring Springs, Ft. Stockton, Aspermont, Old Pry, Sagerton, Rule, O'Brien, Amford and Hobbs, N.M.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. House and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Klump attended Decoration Day services in Comanche County at Big Creek on Sunday, May 13. Accompanying them were W. Trice, W. B. Trice and a daughter of Stamford.

Mrs. Katie Gerloff went home with her son, Raymond and wife, of Abilene when they visited her last week.

RANDSON BORN

Mrs. Garrett Spitzer is visiting her daughter and family, Dean Letzes in Midland. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Letz at Midland, May 24.

He has a little brother. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Letz and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Spitzer, all of Old Glory.

Newt Moore of Stamford visited his son's family, the George Moores, and a daughter's family, the Milton Dudenings. He and his wife are former residents of Old Glory.

T. W. Jennings spent several days in the Stamford Hospital suffering from broken ribs and other injuries he received when a horse he was riding fell on him. He is home now and improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurman Dugan went to Comanche Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. C. M. Lewis, who is a patient in Mims Hospital.

Marcene Baldree, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Baldree suffered a broken collar bone recently when she fell from her baby bed. She is very uncomfortable, but improving. A speedy recovery, Marcene.

Brenda and Dennis Trammell of Aspermont are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Garner, and other relatives here. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Trammell Jr.

Mrs. V. R. Leverett is now enrolled in Abilene Christian College for the first semester. She is working on her Masters Degree in Elementary Education. She will be staying in Abilene at the home of O. W. Paine.

A number of people have reported roof damages from the recent weather disturbances, especially the hail.

The people of Old Glory were beginning to worry and have doubts as to the prospects of RAIN. For the past few weeks it has rained all around Old Glory and left us high and dry. We were beginning to believe that Old Glory was immune to rain, until Saturday morning when it showered pretty heavily.

4-H:

The local Old Glory Girl's 4-H club met on June 5, to discuss the summer schedule and the prospects of a float. The hostesses were: Rita Baldree, Reva Letz, Judy Sander, and Judy White. The refreshments were lemonade and cookies. Mrs. Oren Baldree, one of the 4-H leaders, was the leader that helped with the meeting. Others attending the meeting were: Linda Gholson, Carolyn Sander, Sharon Leverett, Judy Sander, and Dona Bradshaw, also Helen Diers as a guest.

LOCAL:

Visiting the local Church of Christ were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jennings. They were also visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Tredemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Johnson of Wichita Falls and family were

Group Attends Witness Assembly Held in Abilene

"The time has come for the Almighty God to exert His power and take control of earth's affairs even as He has always controlled and always will control outer space. How this will be done is of the greatest importance to everyone." Delegates from the local congregation heard W. R. Thomas, special representative of the Watchtower Society, make this statement during a final session of the three-day "Faithfully Increasing Our Praise to Jehovah" Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at Abilene, Texas, June 1-3.

"The public ministry is the most effective way of reaching those who long for instruction in God's Word and all visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bunyon Johnson, parents and Miss Virginia Johnson, an aunt.

ministers assembled here are encouraged to expand this feature of activity in your respective communities," Thomas said.

LaBrenz, presiding minister, who headed the local group, termed the meeting a grand success with a total attendance of 845. One of the highlights of the assembly was reached at the Saturday afternoon session when 17 persons were immersed as new ministers of Jehovah's Witnesses in a simple mass baptism.

LaBrenz said many whole families attended, most of them traveling by car. "We received practical instruction in Bible educational methods that will help us to be of greater assistance to our neighbors in our house-to-house ministry and home Bible study method of teaching," he remarked.

"We all returned home with a more serious outlook on our ministry and the future," he said, adding, "we must be doers of the divine will."

James R. Austin Advances Rank

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii—James R. Austin, quartermaster third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Austin of 517 North West avenue "J," Hamlin, was advanced to the above rate on May 16, while serving aboard the antisubmarine destroyer USS Fletcher, which is scheduled to depart Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, on July 2, for a six-month tour of duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Advancement is the result of passing a fleet-wide competitive examination administered last February.

During the Far Eastern cruise the Fletcher is scheduled to visit ports in Japan, the Philippines and Okinawa, before returning to Pearl Harbor next January.

BAPTISTS TO ATTEND RALLY DAY TODAY AT LUEDERS CAMP

Baptists from all over District 17 are expected to attend the Rally Day program Thursday (June 14) at the Lueders Camp Grounds. The day's program will open the summer camps to be held at Lueders Encampment throughout the summer.

This 39th annual session will open with registration at 2:00 p.m. The day's activities have been arranged to include the entire family according to Lawrence L. Trott, District 17 Missions Secretary. Swimming and recreation are scheduled from 2:00 to 4:45 p.m. Recently, Baptists of District 17 have built a new home for the camp manager, Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Williams. Open house will be held from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m.

The first session begins at 4:45 under the tabernacle, following the District Executive Board meeting and the WMU Board meeting at 4:00 p.m. The Rev. V. D. Walters, Chairman of the Lueders Administrative Committee and pastor of the North Park Baptist Church, Abilene, will preside both for the afternoon and evening session.

The song service will be directed by Mr. Leo Waite of Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Priddy of the Calvary church of Abilene will bring the special music for the first session. The speaker for the afternoon will be the Rev. Bryon Bryant, Director of Public Relations, Hardin-Simmons University. Supper will follow at 6:00 p.m.

The evening session will open with the Rev. Ray Nobles, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Haskell, leading the devotional. This will be held down by the river front.

Song service will open the night service at 7:30 p.m. "Our Camps in Review" will be of special interest. Each camp director will project his camp highlights. The Rev. J. L. Cartwright, pastor of the Lamar St. Baptist Church, Sweetwater, and District R. A. Director will direct the Junior Boys camp, August 13-16. The Rev. Carl Smith, pastor of the West Side church, Sweetwater, will direct the boys camp June 18-21. This camp is for boys age 12-17.

Sunbeam Day Camp will be held on three different days for boys and girls ages 6-8. The District has been divided by associations and on June 26, The Rev. Trott will speak in the evening session on Rally Day on "We Work Together."

Following the special music by Bob Weissinger, Pioneer Drive Baptist Church, Abilene, the inspirational message will be brought by the Rev. Lenard Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Hamlin, at 8:30 p.m. Session to adjourn at 9:00 p.m.

the years, faculty members who feel Koeninger was done wrong will accept jobs at other schools which are not on the "blacklist."

IN THE RED AGAIN — Heavy payments of state aid to the schools in May pulled the state's main checking account — the general revenue fund — into the red again.

When May started, the deficit was $73,934,636. But heavy collections of corporation and insurance taxes wiped out the deficit, which has been present for nearly four years. This put the fund into the black by the middle of the month.

But when the school payments came due, it pulled the fund $9,391,468 into the red at the end of May. Early June expenditures made the deficit $28,015,980. It will go back into the black when sales tax payments reach the treasury in July.

CROOKED HOLES — State investigators from the Railroad Commission report that of the first eight oil wells in the East Texas Field tested, seven were "deviated" beyond the three per cent allowed by commission rules.

The work is slow, so it may be months, or even years, before the extent of the crooked-hole drilling program in that giant field is known.

Attorney General Wilson has filed one civil lawsuit, contending that a group of operators drilled four wells on a slant so the bottoms of the holes were on someone else's property, and that they plugged two more wells with cement before they could be tested.

Civil suits are being filed by oil companies against owners of nearby leases, contending that crooked holes have drained away oil which belonged to them. So far, eight such suits have been filed.

If court-type evidence is found by the commission's engineers and Texas Rangers, evidence will be turned over to U. S. Dist. Atty. Wayne Justice for possible prosecution under the federal law—usually called the Connally hot oil act—which makes it a federal offense to move oil in interstate commerce after it has been produced in violation of state laws or regulations.

tions of the Railroad Commission.

LAWYERS ELECT — Buster Cole of Bonham was chosen as president-elect of the State Bar of Texas. This means he will take over as head of the group in July, 1963.

Lawyers elect a year ahead of time. This July, when the State Bar meets in Mexico City, Leon Jaworski of Houston will succeed William L. Kerr of Midland as bar president.

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON DEGREE PROGRAM — A curriculum and degree program for the University of Houston, which becomes a state-supported school next year, was approved by the Texas Commission on Higher Education.

It calls for doctor of philosophy degrees in psychology, business and industrial psychology, chemistry, physics and chemical engineering.

Dr. Philip Hoffman, University of Houston president, appeared pleased. He said the Commission's adoption of a large portion of a "role and scope" plan was a "satisfactory recognition of the needs of Houston and the State."

Commission also agreed to consider at its July meeting the merger of the law and pharmacy schools at Texas Southern University with similar schools at the University of Houston. A Commission member said he didn't think the state could afford two schools of law and pharmacy so close together.

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS — Gov. Price Daniel announced these appointments:

Sol Parks and Mrs. Sally G. Pettus of Goliad as members of the Fannin State Park Commission. Parks succeeds Mrs. Louise Donahue of Goliad for a term expiring September 5, 1967. Mrs. Pettus succeeds Walter Bluntzer of Goliad, resigned for a term expiring September 5, 1963.

Jack Hightower of Vernon, O. L. Bell of Quanah, Ralph O. Harvey Jr. of Wichita Falls, Tom Craddock of Seymour and Dr. E. N. Jones of Dallas as members of the Board of Regents of Midwestern University, for six-years. Hightower and Bell are new appointees. Harvey was reappointed.

secretary of the Christian Education Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, is a former president of Texas Tech College.

Russell D. Austin of Andrews as judge of the 109th Judicial District, which includes Winkler, Crane and Andrews counties. He succeeds the late G. C. Olsen. A graduate of the University Law School and former county attorney of Andrews County, Austin won the Democratic nomination for the district judgeship on June 2.

Rev. Edward H. (Whitey) Campbell of Denton as a member of the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth. Rev. Campbell is rector of St. David's Episcopal Church in Denton. He also has served Houston, Rockdale and El Paso churches.

Do So Many Home Buyers Insist on Medallion Homes?

"Live Better Electrically," the advertising slogan says. Modern homemakers know that it's more than a mere slogan — it's a fact. You CAN live better electrically when you buy a Medallion home. Here's why. The man who built that home, the Medallion home, EARNED the privilege of displaying the medallion by observing certain minimum electrical standards in the design and construction of the home, and in the appliances which are a part of the plan for living. It has been called "the Hallmark of Excellence." And it is. So look for the "Live Better Electrically" medallion when you are thinking of buying a new home. Enjoy FLAMELESS electric living!

In all ways of life, keep him swinging in the proper

STRIKE ZONE

PLAY BALL... is a familiar cry in the spring and summer. This is a time that parents and coaches, alike, encourage the boy not to swing unless the ball is in the strike zone... for in the early years of playing the game, the tendency is to swing at every pitch. This holds true in all of life, so it is up to wiser and older heads to train and encourage him in the better things. Bringing up a child is a serious matter and all can use help. Let the church help you to teach him the right ways.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

HEALTH DEPT. URGES CARE IN OPERATING LAWN MOWERS

With the drone of power-driven lawn mowers about to start, cases of chopped finger tips and toes and serious injuries by mower-propelled missiles will climb sharply. Neither power nor hand-driven mowers are completely safe in use because they can cut most things they touch besides grass. Rotary power mowers have blades which spin at tremendous speeds cutting everything in their sweep—grass, weeds, fingers and toes. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that 75,000 power mower accidents occur each year. More than half the injuries are to the feet and hands. About one-third involve different parts of the body when stones or pieces of metal are thrown by the mower blades. These missiles can have the impact of a 22-caliber bullet. Since most injuries are due to carelessness or error on part of persons using mowers, the Texas State Department of Health advises the following precautions:

First, remove stones, sticks and other objects from the lawn. Then check all bolts, nuts and screws to see that they are properly tightened. Add fuel before starting the engine, never while the engine is running and keep hands and feet away from mower blades when starting and mowing.

Learn how to stop the mower's engine quickly. Children and pets should be at a safe distance from the mower, preferably inside the house. Always stop the engine before pushing the mower across gravel driveways, walks or roads and be sure of your footing when mowing slopes or when grass is wet. Never plug in an electric mower when it's raining or when the grass is still wet and always check the cord to be sure it is in perfect condition. The mower should always be moving away from the operator and remember that sit-down mowers have a habit of turning over on sloping ground. Disconnect the spark wire before checking or cleaning the mower. Mowers with the crank-type starters should not be in a charged position until ready for use. Keep fuel in a marked, closed container in a safe place. Regardless of the situation, stop the engine when the mower is left unattended. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education Division, Texas State Dept. of Health.)

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

NAIL-NIBBLERS OFFER THEIR CURES

Dear Amy:
I know an Indian woman who says some kind of mumbo-jumbo then breaks a raw egg on your hand and it's supposed to cure you of nail biting. If the man who signed his letter 'Will' wants to give it a try, I'll get her address for him. My girl friend swears that it worked for her.

Dear Amy:
This man of 30 who bites his nails should be ashamed. If there's anything that ruins a man's appearance, it's nail biting. What do his girl friends say about it?

Dear L.M.R.:
I didn't ask them.

Dear Amy:
Tell Will, who bites his nails, to go to a doctor who specializes in hypnosis. Under hypnosis, I was told I would never bite my nails again and when I woke up, I never did. That was five years ago. It cost me 25 dollars but it was worth it.

Dear Amy:
I used to bite my nails until I met my wife. She got me out of the habit by making me drop a dollar in her piggy bank every time she saw me put my fingers in my mouth. I had to marry her to get my money back but she cured me.

Dear Amy:
It's no wonder that poor guy bites his nails. Handling all that money in the bank every day would make anybody nervous. I think he should change his job. Money is the root of all nail biting. If you saw a bank teller's paycheck you would know why the poor guy bites.

Dear Amy:
I'm twelve years old and in the seventh grade. I have a girl friend who has a bad habit of taking things. One day she and I went to the store together. The owner of the store was talking to me and he didn't see my girl friend take some candy but I did. I didn't say able, it appears that Alamo-X produces yields equal to those of Alamo. Where conditions favorable to blight are present, Alamo-X should prove considerably superior for winter pasture or grain production. Alamo-X is similar to Alamo in general plant characters, growth habit, and seed characters. The seed differ in that they have a moderately heavy black awn. Maturity, plant height, and general appearance are similar. The new anything because it might have hurt her feelings. She has taken wallets and money, too. Two of the wallets were mine but she gave them back. Should I still be friends with her?

Dear Confused:
A friendship with one who stoops to stealing is anything but desirable. You should have told the storekeeper right then and there. Her feelings are not nearly as important as the embarrassment she would have suffered which might have cured her. Her parents should be told. If you can't tell them, the guidance counselor at school will do it for you. If she doesn't know right from wrong, it's time she learned!

Dear Amy:
In September of 1960, my daughter, age 18, started to go with a young man, age 24. A month later they were engaged and planned to get married in January, 1961. I was told that he used to take narcotics and was in the hospital for treatment two years ago. He said he was not taking narcotics at that time and his mother also told me that he was not taking narcotics nor anything else. So we planned a wedding.

In November he was back in the hospital for drug addiction. He is still hospitalized and plans to come back next month . . . and they are still engaged and want to be married. I just cannot accept this in my mind and am very much against this marriage. But what can I do to stop them?

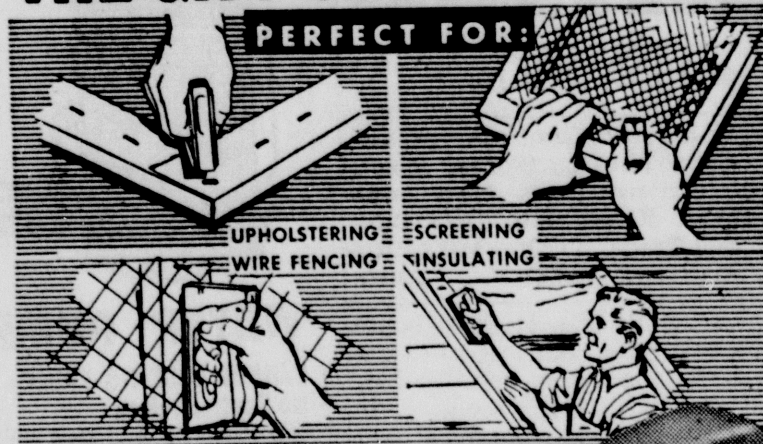

Mrs. S. (California)
The laws of your state permit 18 year old girls to marry without their parents' consent. But if your daughter is sensible, you can talk her out of it. Urge her to go out with other boys. This boy is a poor marriage risk. If talking to her is futile, ask her to write me. I'm confident I can change her mind.

LEGAL NOTICE

HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF HAMLIN, TEXAS

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Housing Authority of the City of Hamlin will receive bids for the construction of Low Rent Housing Project No. TEX-195-1, consisting of ten (10) one story duplex residences containing twenty (20) dwelling units on three sites and one Management and Maintenance Building until 2:00 p.m. (C.S.T.) on the 17 day of July, 1962, at the Board for Community Development, Hamlin, Texas, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud. Proposed forms of contract documents, including plans and specifications are on file at the office of the Housing Authority of the City of Hamlin, hereinafter called the "Local Authority," 5 at Hamlin, Texas, and at the office of Jack C. Whitworth, Architect, 1024 T&P Building, Fort Worth, Texas, and at F. W. Dodge Corporation, Abilene, Texas.

Copies of the documents may be obtained by depositing $25.00 with the Local Authority for each set of documents so obtained. Such deposit will be refunded to each person who returns the plans, specifications and other documents in good condition within 10 days after bid opening.

A certified check or draft, payable to the Local Authority U. S. Government Bonds, or a satisfactory bid bond executed by the bidder and acceptable sureties in an amount equal to 5 percent of the bid shall be submitted with each bid.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish and pay for satisfactory performance and payment bond or bonds. Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the Specifications must be paid on this project.

The Local Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in the bidding.

No bid shall be withdrawn for a period of sixty (60) days subsequent to the opening of bids without the consent of the Local Authority.

Today this debt is approaching $300 billion. We haven't made a payment on the principle in 13 years. We've extended and increased its ceiling five times in the past seven years. This, on the face of it, is ridiculous.

What family would expect to occupy a house for 13 years and pay to the mortgage holder only the interest on the debt? What intelligent family would want to do so, earning no equity whatever and still owing as much as on the day they moved in?

As every family knows, the time to pay debts is when you have money . . . and the best way to pay them is to budget them systematically. This nation has been more prosperous during these past 13 years than any nation in the entire history of the world. Yet we have paid nothing on the national debt. One cannot help but wonder if we ever intend to do so.

Ring Them Bells
Sounds of ringing bells are well known to students. But few have heard bells like those at the University of Texas, in Austin.

Naturally, the UT bells are bigger and better.

UT's well known bell system is provided by a 40,000 pound carillon. This carillon, oft remembered for the holiday tunes played thereon, would of course have to have a bell tower superior to all.

That it does and it is known nationwide as "The Tower." Standing 21-stories high, The Tower is also the administrative building of the University housing the school's offices libraries.

O.E.S. INSTALLS OFFICERS AT TUESDAY NIGHT MEETING

Mrs. Everett Gibson was installed as worthy matron and Roy Watson as worthy patron of the Hamlin Chapter No. 460 of the Order of the Eastern Star in ceremonies in the Masonic Hall Tuesday evening, June 12.

Mrs. R. L. Huffman of Aspermont was installing matron. Other installing officers who assisted were Mrs. Roy McCurdy, marshal; Mrs. Emma Donley of Austin, aunt of Mrs. Gibson, chaplain; Mrs. Charlie Abbott of Winters, organist; Charlie Abbott, secretary; Mrs. Zora Elkins, warder; R. L. Huffman of Aspermont, sentinel.

Those installed with Mrs. Gibson and Watson were Mrs. Joe League, associate matron; Mrs. Fred Smith, secretary; Mrs. A. Hudson, treasurer; Mrs. J. W. Perryman, conductress; Mrs. Johnnie Hester, assistant; Mrs. Bon-sociate conductress; Mrs. Roy nie Bingham, marshal; Mrs. Dick Maberry, organist; Mrs. Mrs. S. C. Ferguson Jr., Adah; Mrs. Paul Goodgame, Ruth; Mrs. Jack Vaughan, Esther; Mrs. Clarence Hyer, Martha; Mrs. Floyd Briscoe, Electra; Mrs. Kelley Scott, mander and Clarence Hyer, sentinel.

Mrs. S. C. Ferguson Jr., retiring worthy matron, gave the welcome, introduced the guests and presented the installing officers.

After the installation, Mrs. Gibson thanked the Chapter for giving her the highest office in the Order, and dedicated her year of service to the members of the Chapter. She gave her theme, "Service to members of the Chapter. Others:" motto "Be the best of whatever you are;" scripture, "By love serve one another," Gal. 5:13; emblem, The Holy Bible; colors, red and white; flowers, any red and white flower in season.

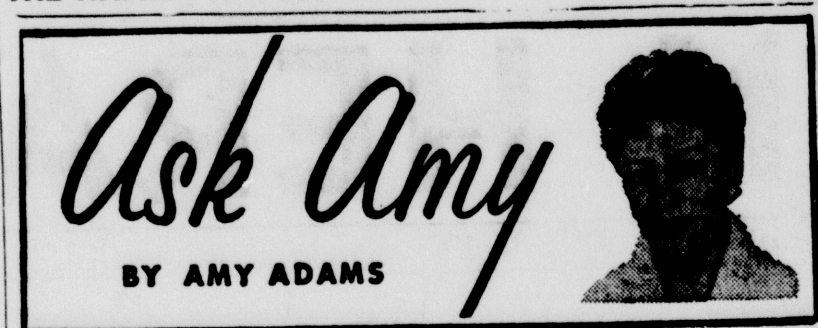

Roy Watson, worthy patron, also expressed his appreciation to the Chapter for the honor of the high office and pledged his year service to the members.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ferguson Jr. were presented the past matron's and past patron's jewels by Mrs. League.

Mrs. Guy Weaver and Mrs. James Bishop served during the reception following the meeting. The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth centered with an arrangement of red and white flowers. Crystal appointments were used. The dining room was decorated with red and white to carry out the worthy matron's colors.

OLD BEAU — NEW NEIGHBOR

Dear Amy:

When I was single, I was practically engaged to a certain guy. We broke up and later I married someone else. I now have a lovely home, two fine children, and a wonderful husband.

The house next to mine was recently sold and the new couple came to see it. I almost died when I saw the fellow. He is the one I almost married. We had shared a few intimacies in the old days and now I don't have the nerve to face him.

How can I handle this situation?

Dear Embarrassed: Forget what happened in the past and introduce him to your husband as an old friend. Treat him and his family as you would any new neighbor and don't ever give him the opportunity to bring up the 'old days.' He is probably happily married too and wouldn't want to embarrass you or himself.

Dear Amy:

My fiancé was injured in an accident a year ago and he is confined to a wheel chair. The doctors don't think he will ever be able to walk again. This doesn't change how I feel about him. I want to marry him as much now as I did then but he won't listen to reason.

He feels that he has nothing to offer me and his attitude is terrible. We spoke to the doctor and he says we can have children. He is an accountant and gets enough work to do at home to make a comfortable income. I love him, Amy, and I know he loves me. Any advice you could offer me to convince him this is the right thing to do would be appreciated.

Marion

Dear Marion: His attitude will change as he becomes less of a burden to himself. Give him a little more time to want you as much as you want him and make him feel YOU need him and can't be without him. Your love and your desire to become his wife should convince him that marriage is part of his life. Good luck to you both!

Dear Amy: My husband is retired. When we were young, we never went on a vacation because we had to raise our children and he always worked.

Now, I would like to go away this summer and my husband doesn't want to go anywhere. He just likes to stay at home.

What can I do to persuade him to go away somewhere for at least a week?

Vacation Needed

Dear Needed: The most potent weapon I know of to convince a husband that it's time for a vacation is the Travel Brochure. Arm yourself with a few dozen and place them within easy reach of your husband's favorite chair. They're irresistible and after he thumbs through a few, I'll bet your vacation is in the bag.

Dear Amy:

I have the swellest Mom in the world. She is a big help to me in whatever I do, and I can tell her whatever is on my mind. Her birthday is coming soon and I picked out the most terrific gift for her. My problem is, that with all my savings, I don't have enough money. My Dad wants to help me out with the amount I'm short for her gift but I want to pay for it myself. I don't have enough time to earn as much as I need. What should I do?

Tommy

Dear Tommy:

Your Mom being the wonderful person she is would feel very badly if you used all your savings to buy her a gift. A small gift that is chosen wisely will thrill her much more than anything expensive you could buy.

P.S. I know, because I'm a Mom too!

Personal to Desperate:

The only way you can share in the profits is to take over the finances. Marriage is a closed corporation. By limiting his working capital, there won't be anything left for a third party!

FAIRVIEW NEWS..

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

The rains have stopped and the farmers are really busy out our way, those losing their crops are planting over, and those having cotton up are working to save it from the sand. The past few days have been very disagreeable, as the ground was packed so hard that every breeze started the dust to rolling. Given a few more days of dry weather the farmers will put an end to that, as all of the ground will be plowed.

Attendance was off again for both services Sunday, maybe the mad rush will soon be over and things will get back to normal. In fact, we are sorry to say, most of the farmers were in the field Sunday, since it is getting so late to plant cotton and that is their livelihood.

Only one visitor was in church Sunday. Mrs. Winson Gray's mother, Mrs. Ollie Parish, is visiting with her for a few days and came to church with them. Mrs. Parish has been living in Lubbock but is moving to Winsboro. She is a former resident of that town.

Penny Ford left Sunday afternoon for Wichita Falls, where she will attend a cheer leaders' school from Monday through Friday, for high school cheer leaders. We are real proud of Penny, for having been chosen to help lead the pep squad.

Rev. and Mrs. Derral Lewis, Ricky and D. J. went to Lubbock Friday night to visit her parents and to bring Kathy home. They returned Saturday night and were caught in the storm between Slaton and Post, reporting that driving was pretty serious.

Mrs. Flavil Holmes visited in Pampa Sunday with her sister, Mrs. R. O. Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner went to Odessa last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Runt McCoy, who went after Larry, who had been visiting Charles and Jerry Joiner in Odessa. The Joiners spent the night with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Joiner, and children, the McCoy's spent the night with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McCoy in Midland. Charles Joiner returned home with them for a visit back in Hamlin.

The McCoy and Joiner trip almost turned to tragedy on Thursday morning in Sweetwater. As they were stopped at a traffic light, a pickup plowed into the rear of their car, but fortunately no one was hurt, although quite an extensive damage was done to the pickup and some to the back of the McCoy car.

Mrs. Winson Gray and her mother, Mrs. Parish visited in the Corinth community Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Goree and Mr. and Mrs. Moss.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ray of Anson and Mrs. Lois Hampton, Abilene, visited Sunday afternoon in the Joiner home.

A letter was read Sunday morning in church from the Rev. Sam Hider, of Oklahoma, who was to help hold the revival, saying that owing to circumstances beyond his control, he would be unable to be with the church. At this time no one has been contacted to take his place. We were looking forward to having the Rev. Hider, as he is a full blood Indian, and it is very interesting to hear him tell of his work among his people, as well as being a very able preacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Wainwright and children, are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wainwright and Jimmy. Also they are visiting with other relatives. They residents of Indiana. Other visitors in the Wainwright Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wainwright and children, Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. David Higgins, and sons, Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peters and children of Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones and sons, Sherman, are on vacation this week visiting in the Hamlin vicinity. Sunday afternoon they were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones. Other visitors were: Mrs. Rex Jones and children and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dillard all of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Roland, Hamlin visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum Sunday afternoon.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. Raymond Denson of Rule, visited with Mrs. E. A. Henry. Little Sherri Combs returned home Home Friday, after spending two weeks with Linda Goodwin.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. Roy Smith will have to have his foot amputated after all as a result of the injury he suffered in the tornado. It was thought that it

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—Texas' crime situation looks a little better. FBI reports covering the first three months of 1962, based on statistics from the 12 largest cities, show major crimes down 6.7 per cent.

Across the U. S. in cities of comparable size, major crime rates rose one per cent.

Texas' crime rate actually is down in number of crimes reported from 1961, despite a population growth during the year of some 200,000.

OUT OF JOBS—Finding a job of Texas is a little easier these days.

Texas Employment Commission reports April unemployment at 4.3 per cent of the labor force as compared to 5.4 per cent a year ago.

Average factory wages rose from $91.21 a week last year to $96.10 this April. Range was wide, however, depending on the industry.

Leatherwork was the lowest paid, an average of $52.13 a week. Oil workers got the most, an average of $132.07 weekly.

Number of Texans working outside agriculture now has passed the 3,000,000 mark. Houston had 19,800 unemployed; Dallas 16,000.

Statewide, 375 persons are working at agriculture. This makes the total working force 3,629,400.

TOO MANY COLLEGES?—Dr. Ralph Green of the Texas Commission on Higher Education thinks the Legislature should quit creating four-year state-supported colleges.

He told a House Committee on Saving Taxes that 20 state could be saved but owing to the lack of circulation it could not and surgery is scheduled for Tuesday morning.

The friends of Mr. Smith have set Wednesday morning to plow and plant his crop. It is thought by then that the ground will all be dry enough to be worked. Judging by the way the men out our way turn out to help a friend in need, it will probably be only a few hours job.

colleges are about enough.

Legislators have extended state support to four new colleges in the last four years. Biggest of the new ones, the University of Houston, will enter the state system this fall. This will substantially increase the state's higher education bill.

WATER SUPPLY—Texas enters the summer with its major reservoirs 76 per cent full.

Texas Water Commission reports that May rains couldn't keep up with use and evaporation, so the water supplies shrunk by 291,000 acre feet.

As June opened, supplies were 76 per cent of capacity, compared with 83 per cent a year ago.

LIVESTOCK RULES AMENDED—The Texas Animal Health Commission, after hearing pleas of livestock market operators, relaxed rules designated to speed up the eradication of brucellosis (undulant fever).

Commission action amending the rules came just before they were to go into effect on June 15.

Before the change, the rules would have required testing for brucellosis before cattle could be moved from market to another.

As amended, the rule says the cattle may move from one approved market to another approved market without having to take the test. This was put on a trial basis.

Restriction of movement was opposed by representatives of the big stockyards at San Antonio, Fort Worth and Houston. Auction markets also had an ardent champion present.

James D. Startwell, president of Houston's Port City Stockyards, said the economic effect of the proposed rule could be "dangerous," particularly so in view of "the predicted downturn in cattle prices now beginning."

Startwell said Texas' cattle inventory includes many so-called "two-way" cattle, entirely dependent on market conditions, which are sold as either stocker or slaughter animals.

Most of these two-way cattle, he said, also are "trader" cattle and loom as a volume moving from interior markets, purchased by a trader and reseller to the terminals for resale. He saw danger to this cattle movement in the proposed regulation.

G. C. Hagelstein of San Antonio's Union Stockyards felt livestock leaving any market should meet the requirements of its destination. But he said he was interested in protecting the industry and didn't believe the regulation did that.

John M. Lewis, general manager of the Fort Worth Stockyards, thought the Commission proposal would "strangle" the price-making terminal markets.

Charles Davis, operator of auction markets at Wichita Falls and Mineral Wells, suggested that animals should be tested when going "to the country" but not from market to market. He called the rule unnecessary and a waste of time and money.

Norman Moser, commission member from DeKalb, said he didn't want to impose anything on the industry that would be harmful.

Dr. R. G. Garrett, the Commission's executive director, didn't oppose the amendment but believed it would delay the testing program.

SAFE FOURTH—Gov. Price Daniel urged the 5,000,000 Texas drivers to help hold down the traffic death list during the July 4th holidays.

"Slow down and live" is the theme of the traffic safety campaign by which Texas traffic people hope to hold down the death rate below the statisticians' predictions.

July 4th comes on Wednesday this year, so fewer Texans will kill themselves on the highway than when the holiday falls near a weekend.

CROOKED HOLES—Tedious job of checking suspected oil wells in East Texas continues. Railroad Commission and Attorney General's Department spokesmen say it will take several months to finish the job.

Four more oil operators were enjoined from interfering with Commission checks of their wells. In two weeks, only 23 wells have been checked out of "several hundred" that Atty. Gen. Will Wilson thinks will have to be investigated before they can write an end to the East Texas investigation.

Wilson has obtained donations from major oil companies to finance the surveys to see if holes were diverted so as to reach oil under someone else's lease. So he has taken over direction of the surveying from the Railroad Commission.

FIRING RESUMES—There was only a brief respite from campaigning after Democratic primaries.

John Connally, the Democratic nominee for governor, and Jack Cox, the Republican nominee, both had their chance to talk at the meetings of their respective state executive committees Saturday, convening to canvass the returns.

Campaigns will start in earnest September 18th when both parties have their state conventions.

But the two young gubernatorial nominees both have state campaign headquarters in Austin. They sound like they plan all-out campaigns in the summer and fall.

Sen. John Tower will be a major campaigner for the Republicans. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Sen. Ralph Yarborough will take to the stump for the Democrats.

They are beginning to make this look like a two-party state. Whether the label sticks depends on what the voters say on November 6th.

The School of Veterinary Medicine of Texas A&M College was established in 1916.

TWICE AS MUCH COOLING

With the patented features of Paramount Coolers

Yes! This famous Paramount 5000 c.f.m. evaporative cooler gives you up to twice as much cooling because of these patented features:

— Many coolers lose as much as 70% of cooling efficiency because dust, dirt and salts clog the filters. Patented No-Clog Sta-Fresh Filters are guaranteed clog-proof, assuring 100% cooling efficiency all summer long.

— Filters saturated with water become heavy and often sag and settle from the top, drawing hot, unfiltered, uncooled air into the cooler which may create as much as a 70% cooling loss. Patented Grip-Lock Filter Holders are guaranteed to prevent sagging and settling of filters assuring 100% cool, clean, filtered air.

— Without correct water trough adjustment, sections of the filters remain dry, resulting in substantial cooling loss and costly service expense. Patented Free-Flo Visible Water Troughs with external adjustment assure 100% saturation, and 100% cooling for the entire life of the cooler.

— Added feature — Patented Window Closing Attachment lets you close and lock your window. Eliminates entry of dust, rain and drafts into your home.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS FARMERS CAN STAND STOCK MARKET FLUCTUATIONS BETTER THAN TYCOONS

losses in the stock market are paper losses, a stock that will keep, it's not like a hog that's ready for market. In farming, the losses aren't paper losses. This doesn't necessarily prove farmers are smarter. They just don't scare so easy.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on route one looks at the stock market this week, from quite a distance. Dear editor:

posed to be as, well, let's say, posed to be as, well, let's say, mentally alert as big business men, they're supposed to be brawn more than brain, but sometimes I wonder.

For instance, when the stock market took a nose-dive recently, what happened? Why, big business men all over the county began shuddering, members of the Stock Exchange were full of expert advice and explanations, and people began wondering if the bottom was going to fall out of things. Is this another 1929? they asked.

Some people with stocks even became a little panicky, and the more worried they got the more they sold. "Why, just think," one man complained, "yesterday my stock was worth $70 a share. Now it's worth $40." He was plenty worried.

But here's the point. Every time somebody sold a stock somebody else bought it, and after it was all over the stocks apparently climbed back up to about where they were before. People were kicking themselves at first for not selling sooner, then kicking themselves for having sold.

Business people ought to associate themselves with the farmers more and they'd come to learn how to be calm under such situations. It happens all the time in farming. Many's the time I've had a crop in the field I figured was worth so much money, only to find out when I hauled it to market it was worth 30 percent less. Every farmer knows what it is to have a steer worth $100 today and $70 tomorrow.

If farmers got panicky under such a situation, they'd stay that way most of the time. Wild fluctuations in the farm prices are as ordinary to a farmer as dry weather when he needs a rain and rainy weather when he needs sunshine.

On top of this, most of the

The Church PLANTS and WATERS...

The church plants the seed of faith, waters and tills the soil.

These are the things that a church can do, and no more...

then God provides the love and life-giving essentials. The growth then depends on the type of soil...is it barren...

mediocre...or fertile. Your life with God will grow according to your will and desire.

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

OLD GLORY NEWS-

By SHARON LEVERETT

The rains which fell intermittently over this area throughout last week totaled from 2 to 3 and one-half inches. This was big news for most farmers who have cotton and feed growing and looking good. Very little hail fell, for which we are grateful. More rain is needed to replenish stock tanks which were getting low. The fine rains were deeply appreciated.

Willie Joe Wilson, who taught science here the past year, has enrolled at ACC summer school and expects to get his BS degree this summer.

Dalton Gill, who taught math here the past three years, has enrolled in Sul Ross State College at Alpine where he plans to get his BS degree, majoring in Mathematics, this summer.

Shirley Winsett, 3rd and 4th grade teacher here the past year, is attending ACC summer school where she plans to get her BS degree in Elementary Education this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Matthews were dinner guests last Sunday in the V. R. Leverett home. Mr. Matthews is serving as minister of the Old Glory Church of Christ and is working in Abilene at present. He received his BA degree cum laude majoring in Bible, at ACC, May 28, and plans to work toward his masters degree come September.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wienke of Lubbock visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wienke, and the group went to Bartlett to attend the annual Klump reunion.

Mrs. Katie Gerloff visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wienke, in Lubbock who brought her back home when they came to attend the Klump reunion at Bartlett.

M-Sgt. Gordon L. Robinson of Ft. Hood visited briefly with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dobe Robinson. He has made the U. S. Army his career for several years and will soon retire.

Herttenberger of Abilene are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Beno Herttenberger. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Herttenberger, former residents of Old Glory.

Postmaster Lisbon Letz visited his brother's family, the Bueford Letz, in Fort Worth, and brought the Letz children home with him to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. "Dock" Alfred Letz and Lisbon for awhile. The children are Martha Kay and Ricky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Macon of Rule were visitors in the Lynn Flowers Home last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Zane Garner and daughter spent the weekend in Lubbock with his cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Reece McBroome. The Garners were dinner guests in the home of the Edward Matthews in Abilene last Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Latham and daughters of Robert Lee visited in the Allen Davis home Sunday and attended the ordination service for Herbert Lammert Jr. at St. Paul Lutheran Church Sunday in Sagerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Letz and daughter of Abilene visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Letz Sunday and attended the ordination service, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lammert Jr. and small daughter, Rebecca Ann, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lammert, Gloria and Danny. They have been residing in Seattle, Washington, where he served his internship at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church during 1960-61. The family will move to Damon, Texas, where he has accepted a call to First English Lutheran Church. He will be installed there July 15, by the Rev. A. L. Pfennig of Rosenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Gibson Sr. and Mrs. G. A. Leach of Sagerton visited the Wilson Gibsons near O'Brien last Sunday. Wilson is the son of the R. O. Gibsons and his wife is Mrs. Leach's daughter.

Lavon Rogers and his 4 year old son, Timmy, of Dallas came by on their return from Denver, Colorado, to visit Lavon's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Gibson Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas and his sister, Mrs. Jerry Looper, all of Lubbock have been visiting Mrs. Thomas' mother, Mrs. H. E. Carr.

Visiting the local Church of Christ were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Letz, Marlene and Freddy of Haskell. They brought Lavonne Jones and Sue Christian from Haskell also.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pringle and family, Mrs. Bill Burk all of California. Mrs. Alma Smith Mrs. Odie Pringle's sister from Abilene.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Odie Pringle are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pringle and family of California. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burk and family of California, and Mrs. Alma Smith of Abilene. They also expect another daughter and husband from Arlington.

Mrs. V. R. Leverett came home from college to spend the weekend with her family. 4-H:

TEXAS FARM BUREAU OPPOSING PROPOSED AGRICULTURE BILL

WACO—Congress should defeat the Administration's proposed farm bill because it is bad for both farmers and consumers, the head of the state's largest farm organization asserted this week.

J. H. West of Bishop, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, charged that passage of the proposed bill, H.R. 11222, now awaiting action in the House, would:

(1) Give farmers no reasonable choice in the referendum

The district leadership camp was held at Buffalo Gap June 18, 19, 20. Those selected from Old Glory to attend were: Donna Pierce, Carolyn Sander, Sharon Leverett, Billie Ann Vahlenkamp, Nancy Vahlenkamp and Linda Gholson. Sharon Leverett, co-vice chairman, will have to help with the camp activities.

provided for in the bill.

(2) Result in higher costs to consumers.

(3) Copy failure of agriculture in regimented nations.

The TFB leader said farmers would be faced with an impossible choice in the referendum which the bill provides.

"Producers would be forced to choose between (1) complete government regimentation and (2) the withdrawal of all price supports in conjunction with a program of dumping government surpluses to destroy the market for current production," West said.

"We would have the choice of submitting to economic imprisonment or committing economic suicide," he explained. "Obviously, there is no choice involved, and farmers would be forced to accept the strictest form of regimentation ever imposed in this country."

farmers can.

"In Russia, a system of collective or regimented agriculture has failed to feed their people adequately," the farm leader explained. "It is no accident that in the Soviet Union today over half of the vegetables and livestock products are raised on approximately 5 per cent of the arable land where collective farm workers are permitted to tend their small plots free from government interference."

"This is proof positive that free farming works," West asserted.

"Why copy failure?"

Regimentation-type controls automatically decrease productive efficiency, thus resulting in higher food costs," the Farm Bureau leader explained.

West added that passage of H.R. 11222 would be copying the failure of other nations which have planned farm economies.

"Regimented nations today are the ones with food shortages," the TFB president stated. "Government planners cannot run farms as efficiently as farmers can.

"In Russia, a system of collective or regimented agriculture has failed to feed their people adequately," the farm leader explained. "It is no accident that in the Soviet Union today over half of the vegetables and livestock products are raised on approximately 5 per cent of the arable land where collective farm workers are permitted to tend their small plots free from government interference."

"This is proof positive that free farming works," West asserted.

"Why copy failure?"

"West, who is a member of the American Farm Bureau board of directors, said Farm Bureau is for a positive, not punitive farm program which permits a maximum of freedom for the farmer with a minimum of cost to taxpayers."

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Carter, Hamlin, are the parents of a boy, Rickie Dale, born June 17, and weighing a healthy 7 pounds, 12 ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Armstrong of Roby and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Carter, of Hamlin.

These remarkable results came from recent tests at the Riverside International Raceway in California. At Plymouth's request, the U. S. Testing Company conducted these ten exciting events, pitting a Plymouth against a comparably equipped Chevrolet and Ford. Plymouth's eight victories speak for themselves, proving that the 1962 Plymouth is—beyond doubt—the Greatest Plymouth Ever Built!

MOTORISTS URGED TO HOLD FOURTH TRAFFIC DEATHS DOWN

Governor Price Daniel today urged Texas' 5,000,000 licensed automobile drivers to "follow the fine example you yourselves have set on the past two Fourth of July holidays and do everything you can to keep the holiday happy with the fewest possible traffic deaths."

The Governor's plea signaled the opening of the annual Texas participation in the nationwide "Slow Down and Live!" campaign sponsored by the Association of State and Provincial Traffic Coordinators. J. O. Musick, general manager of Texas Safety Association, is state coordinator for Texas. He is being joined by the Governor's Highway Safety Commission and numerous other traffic safety organizations in an effort to reduce highway deaths during the summer vacation period ending on Labor Day.

They burn their car headlights during the holiday daylight hours as a sign that they are driving safely and legally.

The Texas Council of Safety Supervisors, composed of safety directors for the Texas trucking industry, said it would ask all commercial vehicle operators to join in the "Drive Lighted" demonstration on the Fourth.

For the fourth time in the past 11 years, the Fourth will be observed as a one-day traffic holiday in Texas because it falls in the middle of the week. In 1956, the DPS forecast of ten was exceeded when 15 traffic deaths were recorded. But in 1961, only six deaths were counted against a prediction of 11.

The Statistical Services of the DPS will announce its 1962 Fourth of July traffic death prediction on Sunday, June 24.

Opened simultaneously was the statewide traffic safety campaign to save lives in Texas as traffic during the one-day Fourth of July holiday, designated by the Texas Department of Public Safety from 12:01 A.M. to 11:59 P.M. on Wednesday, July 4.

The Texas Maritime Academy of the Texas A&M College provides a course of education and training to qualify its graduates as officers in the United States Merchant Marine.

vonne Carter will represent Hamlin in the Texas Cowboy Reunion. Best wheat crop in eight years, giving Hamlin area an average of 20 bushels per acre. If you are a man between 25 and 44, be extra careful in driving during the 4th. You are more likely to have accidents. Lynn Brannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Brannon, has returned from a week of camping at Camp Letoli. Dee Prewitt to play in Greenbelt All-Star game at Childress.

Sunbeam Camp Dates Set for June

Sunbeam Day Camp for the churches in District 17 will be held at the Lueders Baptist Encampment on three days, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday (June 26-27-28) with designated groups attending each day.

Mrs. Maple Avery of Abilene will be the director for the three days. Mrs. George DeWoody, District 17 Sunbeam Director, and Mrs. J. Paul Turner, District WMU President, will assist. The Rev. L. L. Trott, District Missions Secretary, will be the camp pastor.

The theme of the three days will be "Lighting The Way." Mrs. L. L. Trott of Abilene, Chairman of the decoration committee, has planned a Japanese emphasis. Registration will begin each day at 8:30 a.m. The assembly under the tabernacle will begin at 9:00 a.m. and the Divisional leaders will be introduced for each age group.

Wednesday's camp will be for the Haskell-Knox, Callahan, and Jones Associations. Mrs. V. W. Howard, Haskell; Mrs. Bill Shira Hamlin; and Miss Evelyn Hollis, Clyde will direct the age groups.

Sessions will conclude at 3:30 p.m.

Sellers Family Moves Back

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sellers, Pinky, Charles and Sue moved back to Hamlin from Coleman on June 8. They went to Coleman in order to help operate the Coleman Livestock Auction. Sellers will return to Coleman on sale days, but will carry on his farming and livestock work here.

He and his partner, DeWayne Edington, plan to start selling sheep at the Coleman Livestock Auction on July 2.

The Sellers family will attend the National Livestock Dealer Convention in Rapid City, South Dakota, June 21-24. Sellers is serving as second vice-president this year.

Pinky Sellers is taking summer courses at McMurry College and plans to return to North Texas University in the fall.

Celotex Shows Net Loss During Year's First Six Months

Chicago—Net sales of The Celotex Corporation for the six months ended April 30, 1962 were $25,546,287 resulting in a loss from operations of $1,232,032 after Federal income tax credit. For the comparable period a year ago, the company reported a net loss from operations of $197,411 on sales of $28,522,739 and a net non-recurring gain on the sale of fixed assets. After taking a total net income of $1,041,573.

The citizens of Brazos County gave a site of 2,416 acres for the original campus of Texas A&M College.

COASTAL FISHING—Carl Green and his son Edward Lee show off their catch they landed from the boat "Emily" out of Port Aransas on June 13. The pair caught 42 fish 53 miles out in the gulf. The catch included a 4-7 pound Warsaw, a 27-pound Warsaw, a 15-pound Scamp and 39 Red Snapper.

40 Years Ago—

In spite of the long, dry winter and early spring; in spite of the big rains and floods, washes and weeds, a promising cotton crop is up

Saturday was Candidate Day in Hamlin and the streets were full of anxious men seeking county offices. (In the Strauss Dry Goods Co. 2 page ad) "Lazy wanderers who stumble in late cannot expect to match the values obtained by the mental quick wits who are waiting at the door."

25 Years Ago—

Mr. C. M. Watson, director of the Stamford American Legion Band, and Mr. L. E. Baize, Tuxedo are going to organize a Hamlin band. 150 pounds of poison will be spread on Jones County fields, according to County Agent R. H. Maxwell. A growing "suspicion" that West Texas women resent being called "housewives" prompts a radio contest to find a new name for the homemaker.

15 Years Ago—

Statement of condition of the F&M National Bank of Hamlin reveals that the institution has hit the $4 million mark for the first time in its history. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sellers and son, Pinky, attended a family reunion at Ballinger. Ted Russell tells us that the hospital's construction is coming along fine. The stockholders may have to add another wing if traffic accidents continue. Grains continue to find good demand but cotton seesaws on area markets.

10 Years Ago—

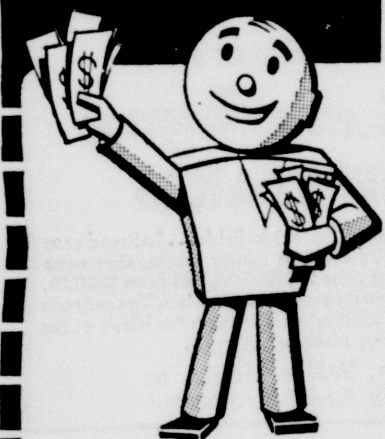

Total rainfall for the first six months of '62 is 5.36 inches, the driest yet for the past eleven years. Members of the Friendship HD Club met last Friday in the Oil Mill Guest House with Mrs. M. S. Johnson and Mrs. M. F. Green as hostesses. Modernization program of the Ferguson Theatre will include a refreshment center. Allan Shivers took off his formal governor's coat this week to hit the hot July Texas campaign trails. Cadet Jack G. Willingham arrived at Fort Knox, Kentucky to begin six weeks of Armor ROTC training.
